Company Profile

Company overview

Ramis Trading Company is one of the largest manufacturers of fruit concentrates and purees in the Middle East. The company has a lot of agricultural lands in fertile areas of the Middle East and has started to cultivate various fruits to produce various types of concentrates and fruit purees in order to have a share of this lucrative business around the world. Ramis Trading Company has managed to meet the needs of many traders and merchants in this region in order to turn into one of the top brands in this field in the Middle East by expanding its farmlands and equipping its factories with the most advanced machinery in the world.

Business Description

The Middle East is capable of producing and growing different types of fruits in different seasons due to its four seasons and diverse climate conditions. Keeping these fruits in cold storage for a long time can reduce their quality; consequently, it is not appropriate to be offered to the international markets. Various companies in the world have processed different types of fruits leading to a long-term storage duration. Therefore, many countries have started competing in this field, among which China ranks as the first producer of concentrates and fruit purees in the world. Among the largest companies producing concentrates and fruit purees in the world, Ramis Trading Company has been able to meet the needs of many traders and merchants around the world by increasing its production by purchasing new fields and equipping its factories with the most advanced and high-tech machinery in order to turn into a top brand in the field of production of concentrates and fruit purees in the Middle East.
